The meeting was focused on WP2 which constitutes the first step toward the implementation of the project, mapping the situation in the participating countries. During this first phase the partners will investigate the current status, challenges and gaps in combating cyber sexual harassment, particularly towards female gamers, in their countries and on EU level, aiming to inform and support the development of the ENHAGA tools in the next WPs of the project.

Finally, the project partners agreed to keep in touch and coordinate their activities via online communication channels, taking all necessary actions to guarantee the success of the project.
